November 11 is called Remembrance Day in Canada. On this day we acknowledge the reality of past world conflicts and the death of many soldiers to protect the rights and freedoms we enjoy in our country. We do not glamorize war but we give thanks for the freedoms we can enjoy in Canada as a result of the sacrificial service of many at home and far away. We also remember with humility the conflicts that continue today, and pray for peace and safety.

PRAISE & PRAYER

"And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints."
