Missionary Spotlight

Ryan Thiessen

We thank God for each one of the students we were able to walk with over the past four months, seeing Him at work in their lives. Pray for them as they have now returned home, some going back to established ministries and others considering where God might next be leading them next. Here are a few things to pray for: Wisdom and grace in knowing how to share what they've experienced together over the past months. Direction in their lives for those discerning God's paths. Continued transformation as they learn how to put into practice many of the things they've learned. Thank you for your on-going prayers as we take time to evaluate this time together and make plans for the rest of the year. ¡Dios les bendiga!
